College offers an opportunity for you to make something out of yourself. You find in college an opportunity and a responsibility to use a great investment which the State provides for your education. The State has a right to expect returns from its investment. The State is depending on you.

WILLIAM MARION KETHLEY, A. M.,
President.

School teaching is a great adventure—worthy of the strong in mind and the pure in heart. As the teachers of today think and do, so will the children of tomorrow be. There is at the command of men no agency other than the schools to bring children into vital relations with the heritage of the past and set the stage for the new born experiences of expectant souls.

Teachers colleges are dedicated to the task of making teachers worthy of sitting in at the meeting place of mind and matter and of witnessing there the renaissance of a new freedom as children struggle under friendly guidance to solve their own perplexing problems.

WILLIAM HENRY ZEIGEL, PH. D.,
Dean of the Faculty.

ALMA MATER

Oh Delta State we cling to the memory
Of happy days we've spent,
Of standards high, and of friendships dear,
Making our life there something to treasure.
We have come to sing the praises
Of the old school we love best,
Oh, hail to you, our dear Alma Mater,
Oh, hail to old Delta State.

LOOKING BACK

The year 1935-36 has been an eventful one for Delta State Teachers College. Student activities have reflected nobly on the institution. Truly, the year has been a fine one.

Looking back over the files of Miss Delta for the past year we find many interesting items.

September 23—The eleventh year of the Delta State Teachers College was opened Monday, September 16. The largest number of students ever to register in the history of the college was present.

September 30—Millsaps defeated Delta 27-0 in the first game of the season.

October 7—Tennessee Team defeated the Statesmen by a score of 26-0. The Delta Playhouse elected eleven new members.

November 4—Statesmen lose to Lambuth 2-0. Campus celebrities are elected following the Footlight Review.

November 11—Delta State celebrates the seventh Homecoming Day. Bethel defeats Statesmen 13-6.

November 25—Freshman Class wins Stunt Night award.

December 17—Fraternity play scores a success in "Her Friend The King", a three-act comedy. Sunday night at 8:00 P. M. the annual Christmas concert was given under the auspices of the Department of Music.

January 13—Three one-act plays were presented by The Delta Playhouse December 20. They were: "The Silver Swan", "Just What They Wanted", and "More Blessed".

January 27—Delta Singers enjoy trip to Nashville. The singers broadcasted in Memphis and Nashville.

March 2—The construction of the $25,000 modern swimming pool on the campus is progressing rapidly. Juniors win play tournament. Carnival Ball is a gala affair.

March 23—Delta State was host to the Mississippi Intercollegiate Forensic Association.

April 13—Ted Shawn and His Men Dancers to give program at the college April 23. Six nominees are subject to approval or rejection by the student body for the Student Cabinet elections.

April 20—Freshman Edition! Student directors present plays. Women's Glee Club and Moorhead Choir to give programs this week.

BOOK V

Football...

The scorebook is a poor and inadequate yardstick to measure the success of the 1935-36 football squad. In score, there were better teams in the conference, but in sportsmanship, grit, and determination, the statesmen proved themselves second to none in any conference. The season was one to test the mettle of every man from coach to water boy, and every man came up, pure hard steel. This season was victorious in more ways than one, and Coach Zimoski can justly feel proud of the work he has directed.

O u r F O O T

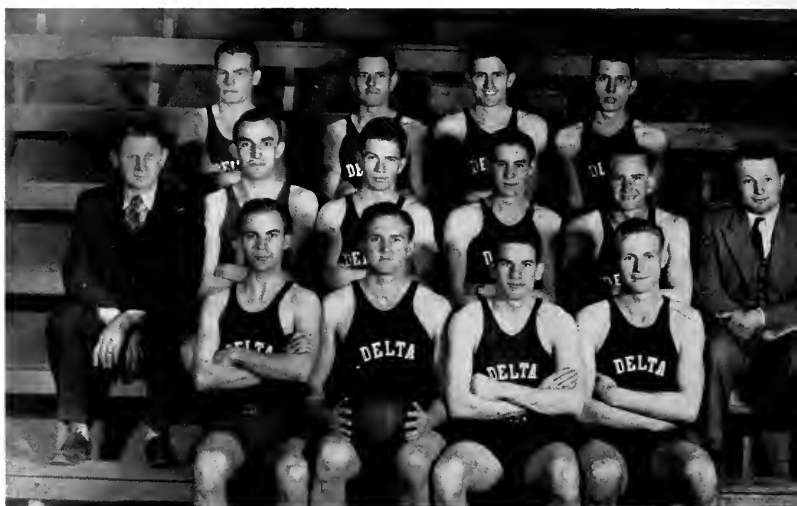

1. Arthur Baker, Assistant Coach, every inch a good man for the place he held.
2. Delbert Griffin, Co-Captain and End, one of the old men whom Delta State will long remember for the best of qualities.
3. Terrell Melton, Co-Captain and Fullback, sterling sportsmanship and powerful playing contributed to his perfect leadership.
4. Malcolm Commer, Guard, quiet, perhaps, but most effective.
5. Robert Taylor, Quarterback, all that any coach could want in a good player and a high type of man.
6. Jack Brown, Halfback, flashy, fast, and dangerous to the opposition.
7. Elberlee Jacks, Tackle, a powerful freshman linesman.
8. A. P. Brown, End, an experienced player full of courage and determination.
9. Roy Ward, End, one of the mainstays of the squad.
10. Shelby Bishop, Center, a fighter from the ground up.
11. Milton Gary, Halfback, a carefree, cheerful player who did his part well.
12. Jack Stillion, Center, one of the best men ever to don the green and white.
13. Ben Hardy, End, a senior who rounded out his second year here in a manner to win a place in the halls of memory.
14. Berlin Griffin, Center, one of the famous three Griffins, and no better man from any standpoint ever played football.
15. Aubrey Fellows, Tackle, sincere in his efforts, clean in his tactics.

BALL Team

COACH HERMAN ZIMOSKI
PROFESSOR A. L. CHAPMAN

1. Ben Taylor, Tackle, a good man, valuable to the team for his playing and moral support.
2. Cyril White, Halfback, contributed greatly to the type of clean sportsmanship that makes good football.
3. Talmadge Heard, Halfback, one of the last-year men who will be missed.
4. Wayne Harris, Halfback, one of Delta State's bright outlooks for three more years.
5. Ben Bailey, Halfback, clean playing, hard running back.
6. Marian Stevens, Guard, one of the pluckiest men on the entire squad.
7. Sam Hamilton, Quarterback, good football tactics characterized his playing.
8. Lynn Baker, Guard, any man who crossed his position was proud of his achievement.
9. John Hutchinson, Center, who did his share of the key position work capably.
10. Robert Smith.
11. Travis Smith.
12. W. B. Hunter, Tackle, "Lard" to the team, and disaster to the opposition.
13. Carl Martin, Tackle, big enough and good enough to make anybody's team.
14. Milton Coalter, Tackle, a new man who came to contribute liberally to Delta State's team.
15. Bill Mann, Fullback, a first-year man who played with the skill of experience.
